

Intent to Sole Source

October 11, 2022

Central Carolina Technical College intends to purchase Ford Engine Repair Trainer, Ford start cart and GM Automotive trainer for the college from:

ATech Training Inc
12290 Chandler Drive
Walton, KY 41094

The training system will be used in the Automotive Technology program at college's Sumter campus. The trainers will provide full engine functionality that will enable students in the program to diagnose fault codes, troubleshoot (run, separate, rebuild, reassemble and rerun), and make repairs that are common in the automotive industry. ATech training Inc is the sole provider of the automotive equipment.

Should you have concerns with this intent, please send your responses via email to CCTC Procurement Director, Chery Allen-Lint at allenlintcr@cctech.edu for this Intent to Sole source no later than 10:00 a.m. on October 17, 2022.

This notice will be posted in the South Carolina Business Opportunities (SCBO) for five business days as required by SC Code 11-35-1560.

PROTESTS:

If you are aggrieved in connection with the intended award or award of the contract, you may be entitled to protest, but only as provided in Section 11-35-4210. To protest an award, you must (i) submit notice of your intent to protest within five (5) business days of the date this notice is posted, and (ii) submit your actual protest within fifteen days of the date this notice is posted. Days are calculated as provided in Section 11-35-310(13). Both protests and notices of intent to protest must be in writing and must be received by the appropriate Chief Procurement Officer within the time provided. The grounds of the protest and the relief requested must be set forth with enough particularity to give notice of the issues to be decided. Any protest or notice of intent to protest must be addressed to:
