

Intent to Sole Source

October 18, 2022

Central Carolina Technical College intends to purchase ER-4iA Robot, Armatrol Pumps Learning System and trainers, and Hydraulic Learning System for the college from:

Technical Training Aids
2076 Valleydale Terrace
Birmingham, AL 35244

The robots and training systems will be used in the Mechatronics Technology program at college's Kershaw campus. The pump learning system and trainers will assist students with the understanding centrifugal, diaphragm, peristaltic and other related operational processes. The pump and hydraulic learning systems contain self-paced or lecture-lab guides for student and instructors. The robotic package includes the educational tooling package and MH CERT training program that is utilized in the classroom. The robots are industrial grade and meet the current industry's standard for robotics training. The curriculum includes learning objectives and industry skills.

Should you have concerns with this intent, please send your responses via email to CCTC Procurement Director, Chery Allen-Lint at allenlintcr@cctech.edu for this Intent to Sole source no later than 10:00 a.m. on November 2, 2022.
